

To use any of the library resources you will need to be a member of the library. Joining is as easy as completing the online form on our website

<http://www.knowledge-nw.nhs.uk/pages/join-the-library.aspx>

If you want access outside of the library opening times just ask for 24 hr access and we can arrange that for you.

The library has 12 computers (reduced capacity due to social distance measures) available, as well as a number of study pods and desks where you can use your own device.

You will need your trust logon details to use the computers.

Please use the antiseptic wipes, which are available throughout the library, to wipe down the keyboard and mouse before use.

DISCOVERY

Use DISCOVERY to find books, e-journals, reports and full text articles all in one place.

www.knowledge-nw.nhs.uk

To use Discovery you will need an NHS OpenAthens account. If you haven't already got one you can register for one <https://openathens.nice.org.uk/>

NHS OpenAthens will give you access to e-books, full text articles and e-journals.

You can perform a search of the literature using HDAS (Healthcare Databases Advanced Search) and your NHS OpenAthens account. If you don't have time or want the expertise of a Librarian then complete our form <http://www.knowledge-nw.nhs.uk/Literature-Search/Pages/Request-a-Literature-Search.aspx> and we will perform the search for you.

We also offer one to one or group virtual training via your PC or laptop on:

- Literature Searching
- Accessing and using our online resources and journals
- Critical Appraisal
- And more

Email us to find out more or to book your session.

Alternatively if you just want to be kept up to date with the latest guidance, reports, news then take a look at our current awareness service <http://www.knowledge-nw.nhs.uk/knowledge/Pages/RSSPage.aspx>

The pages are updated daily and you can sign up to receive a daily email with links to the topics that have had new items added.

Just contact the library <http://www.knowledge-nw.nhs.uk/Pages/contact-us.aspx> and ask to be added to the distribution list.
